INTRODUCING THE LE CONCEPT

The Future of Electric Mobility

A glimpse of the future, the Infiniti LE Concept is set to launch in 2014 in markets around the world. The stylish and high performance five-seat luxury car is completely electric, with zero emissions, and represents the vanguard of Infiniti's commitment to eco-performance. Infiniti makes it possible to harmonize emissions reduction with driving excitement.

Welcome to the bold future of high performance electric vehicles. This luxury 5-seat sedan is Infiniti's ultimate expression of future mobility: powerful electric propulsion with zero emission, luxury design, organic styling, and effortless wireless charging. More than just fantasy, the Infiniti LE Concept becomes reality in 2014.

Zero emission, zero cables, 100% luxury. Because Infiniti believes true luxury should always be intuitive – not intrusive.
